

As many of you know, I lived in a 900 sq foot trailer for almost 7 years. My office was slash "my office", slash "spare bedroom" slash "junk room" slash "storage" slash "home office for Kris and Jayden to play on the computer"... I had NO room for hardly anything.

Kris and I had always dreamed of building a new home. He was to build it, and I was to decorated and glam it up, LOL. Several years back I MADE a the DECISION to start earning prizes for OUR HOME to Decorate it with when the time come. THROUGH the STAR CONSULTANT PRIZES that the company offers us!!! I could just SEE it in my mind how COOL it WOULD BE to have all these items to set out BRAND NEW when we moved in.... and it would cost me nothing!

How it worked was, when I earned a prize I would choose something off the chart that could decorated my "future" home. When the UPS man delivered my Prize I would take it to our Building and STORE it... I KNEW one day I would get to open all those boxes and go around my house placing each one of them!!

2 Saturdays ago.... that DREAM CAME TRUE!! I made 3 trips back and forth collecting those boxes out of that building. Oh !!! they had been there for years, so they were dusty, dirty, and BUGGY!! However, they sparkled like new when I took each of them out! I wanted to share.
